

3 February 1950

Vice Admiral J. L. Hall, Jr., USN
Commandant
Armed Forces Staff College
Norfolk 11, Virginia

Dear Admiral:

Thank you very much for changing the date for the lecture to Wednesday, 1 March 1950.

1.3(a) (4)
Activities and Methods

[redacted] and I will come down most likely the night before but please do not make any arrangements about caring for us. Just leave word with the sentry or the B.O.Q. that we should like to have a place to sleep.

STAT

I shall be looking forward to seeing you at this lecture and hope it will not be too horrible.

With best wishes, please believe me,

Sincerely,

Si - disp by ROR 4/3/50

R. H. Hillenkoetter
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

D:RHH:lec
Distribution:
Orig--addressee
1 cc--DCI
1 cc--Central Records - Basic to CR on 1 Mar 50.

~~34(c) 1949 Act~~

NOTE FOR RECORD: Basic dtd 31 Jan 50 from V Adm J L Hall Jr, Commandant, Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk reads: Fortunately I have been able to rearrange our schedule to provide for your lecture on Wednesday, 1 March, at 1000 as suggested in your letter of 19 January. I believe that Colonel Burgess will be in touch with you as to the further details of your visit. I am grateful that you are to be with us again. Sincerely /c/ J

ER-9377
NOTE FOR RECORD: 3 Mar 50 ltr to DCI from V Adm J L Hall, Jr., Commandant, expresses appreciation for DCI lecture -- "vitality and authority with which you speak made this an especially stimulating experience. Your lecture and your concise and direct answers during the discussion period gave clear picture of practical operations of Agency." illegible